E. Other information

Medical insurance requirements	Students from EU countries can keep their foreign health insurance if they have been issued a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC). Students need to find out in advance from their health insurance provider at home what treatments and medications are free in Germany and which they would have to pay for. More information: https://www.uni-hamburg.de/en/campuscenter/bewerbung/bachelor-staatsexamen/zulassung-einschreibung/krankenversicherung.html
Semester contribution	The reduced semester contribution (Semesterbeitrag) for international guest students amounts to approx. €300 and is not the same as tuition fees. For example, the contribution also includes a semester public transport pass for the city of Hamburg (www.hvv.de).
Accommodation	There are limited rooms in dormitories reserved for incoming exchange students. The application form is available on our website.
Buddy programme	The Faculty of Medicine offers a buddy programme to guide exchange students before and after their arrival in Hamburg.
Scholarships for incoming exchange students	Not at present.
Non-EU students	Non EU-students, excepting students from Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway and Switzerland, need a visa for a stay in Germany longer than three months. Please contact the German embassy or consulate.
To Do's for international students	https://www.uni-hamburg.de/en/piasta/welcome-buddy/to-dos-fuer-neue-studierende.html Further specific "To Do's" for medical students are provided before the start of the semester.
